Review: Report by Po I-po to the cadre conference of the Central People's Government, North China People's Government, and the municipal governments of Peiping and Tientsin on 9 January 1952. Discusses the Three Antis Movement, launched in Peiping on 10 December 1951, the nature of the movement, and its program and policies. Makes a strong emotional appeal for support of the movement which is oriented toward national reconstruction and the Korean war. Refers to experiences of Northeast China in the promotion of the movement.
